

PRUEBAS DE ACCESO A GRADO SUPERIOR ANDALUCIA 2010 INGLÉS RESUELTO

1. A-River rafting consists in riding an inflatable rubber boat down a violent river with the help of a paddle
 B-It's ideal for a risk-taker, in good shape and know how to react in difficult situations
2. At first take up river rafting by yourself.FALSE
 Practising river rafting there are no possibilities of overboard.FALSE
 As you progress, the difficulties increase.TRUE
 This sport is not for courageous and risky people.FALSE
3. A. Find the opposite for: "OLD" : ....YOUNG.....
 B. Write the superlative of: "EASY": .....THE EASIEST.....
 C. Write the interrogative for the underlined words.
 "We met Paul during our stay in that wonderful resort."
 WHEN DID YOU MET PAUL?
 D. Write a word from the text that matches the following definition
 "Someone who is interested in things and eager to learn as much as possible.'
 (adjective): .....BEGINNERS.....
 E. Turn the sentence 'The policeman took the thief to prison' into the passive voice: THE THIEF WAS TAKEN TO PRISON (BY THE POLICEMAN)
 F. Complete the following sentence to make a conditional
 If I were a good SPORT woman, I WOULD DO RIVER RAFTING
4. Practicing sports is good for or health for many reasons.
 First of all, it helps us to stay fit and in good shape. Secondly, it is good for our health, our heart and our muscles. Finally sport also helps us to sleep because we feel more tired and it is easier to fall asleep.

www.academianuevofuturo.com