

examen_inglés_acceso_grado_superior_madrid_2015_solución

1. .
  - a. Cervantes died in 1616.
  - b. The search tem used infrared cameras, 3D scanners and a ground-penetrating radar.
  - c. Scientists are going to identify his body based the author's specific physical characteristics, as documented in portraits or his own stories.
  - d. Because it would probably become a site of literary pilgrimage.
  - e. Cervantes was born in Alcalá de Henares, a viillage near Madrid.
2.
  - a. Places-sites
  - b. Religious community-convent
  - c. Discovered-found
  - d. Continue-remain
  - e. Extensively-widely
3. .
  - a. Miguel de Cervantes, who is one of the most popular playwrights in the world, was born in Alcalá de Henares.
  - b. Don Quijote is a novel that was published in two parts.
  - c. Forensic anthropologist Francisco Exteberria told the local press: "It is like a patient who is going to have surgery".
    - i. Francisco Etxberria told the local press that it was like a patient who was going to have surgery.
  - d. If experts find (otra opción: found) and official burial site for Cervantes, it will (would) attract a lot of tourists and pilgrims to Madrid.
  - e. Carvantes died in 1616 but his body has not been found yet.
  - f. I love reading. At the moment, I am reading a book called "A world without end", by Ken Follet.
4. E, B, C, D, A.
5. My favourite novel is Rayuela, by Julio Cortázar. One of the reasons why I like it is due to its marvellous sentences, describing situations and feeling, they are almost poetry. Besides, the unique thing about this book is that one is not meant to read it according to the usual order of chapters, but jumping from one another instead.